

FAT-O-LIP – Rumen Protected Triglyceride

Description

FAT-O-LIP is the specialty product designed to deliver Phosphatidyl Choline (PC) of vegetable origin directly at the intestine level.

Specification

Parameters	Unit
Total Fatty Matter	%	Min 92
Moisture & Impurities	%	Max 5
FFA (as Palmitic)	%	Max 10
Appearance		Colour off white or brown prills

Nutritional and Practical Benefits

- An ideal additive of rumen-protected phosphatidyl choline and energy
- High bio-availability of choline and fatty acids for ruminants
- Prevents from fatty liver syndrome, ketosis and displaced abomasum
- Increases Milk yield, Fat content and SNF
- Improves feed conversion and reproduction

Dosage

- Cows: 10 g/ litre of Milk yield up to 15 Lit/day. Above 15 litres, feed 8g/litre of Milk. FAT-O-LIP LS has to be fed on daily basis throughout lactation period.
- Buffaloes: 15g/litre of Milk yield. Need to be fed daily throughout lactation period.

Packaging

25 Kg White Coloured Paper bags with HDPE Liner

Storage

- Store in a cool and dry place, in original unopened bags, without direct exposure to sunlight.
- Soft lumping may happen if it is stacked too high with many bags

Shelf-life

- 12 months after the production date.